

Got a brilliant idea starring Moose the dog?

We're teaming up with ClearScore to dream up a new social media moment featuring their iconic pup, Moose. Think heartwarming, funny, unexpected—or just plain clever.

Send 400 words or less describing your idea to info@andrising.com by 7th April. Add any references or images if you like.

We'll share the best ideas with the CEO of ClearScore, post the winner on our LinkedIn, and throw in a £200 Amazon voucher.

If we really love it, we might even make it together.

Let's see what you've got. 🐾
